

IC 20-12-21.3

Chapter 21.3. Capacity to Contract for Guaranteed Student Loans

IC 20-12-21.3-1

Full contractual capacity

Sec. 1. Students who enter into contracts for loans to finance a college education or who borrow money to defray the expense of attending any institution of higher education, shall have full legal capacity to act in their own behalf in these transactions, and with respect thereto shall be subject to any obligations arising from such contracts.

(Formerly: Acts 1973, P.L.218, SEC.3; Acts 1973, P.L.222, SEC.4.)